This month we have two events of a contrasting nature! The first event, featuring organist Paul Jacobs, will be the continuation of the organ recital series which we are co-sponsoring at The Kimmel Center. Paul has strong Philadelphia connections, having studied here for five years at The Curtis Institute of Music. This is a wonderful way to welcome him back and to feature one of "our own." Tickets are $28, but a reduced rate is available to our members for $23 by contacting Judy Bell at bjbell86@aol.com or 215-860-6664. A dinner will be held after the recital at The Franklin Inn Club located at 205 South Camac Street. The cost is $30 per person (a real deal!!) and includes hors d'oeuvres, dinner and dessert. Those who were present for dinner after Cherry Rhodes' recital will remember what a great time we all had and what a wonderful meal

CRESCENDO

VOLUME LXIX, NO. 6

Happy belated 2007, even as you're looking forward (maybe) to Valentine's Day, another Hallmark moment. On to the business at hand...

Congrats to Katherine Reier on another astounding January JumpStart! Thanks also to Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church and Jeff Brillhart for hosting the event. The great availability of space and two marvelous organs makes Bryn Mawr an ideal location for the JumpStart. The Philadelphia Chapter has a history with BMPC, and it's wonderful to continue it. Now onward to an even bigger and better JJ in 2008!

Jeff Fowler

Organist Paul Jacobs is the featured event for February with his recital in the Kimmel Center's Verizon Hall on the Saturday the 10th at 3:00pm. I will be sending you an email early on which I encourage you to send on to those on your own email list, such as choir members, family, and friends. It would be great to pack the house for this! Paul, a legend in the making, is not to be missed by anyone with half an interest in the Art of the Organ! A dinner at the Franklin Inn Club follows the concert. See the details in the cover article to make dinner reservations and to secure the best seats at a reduced rate. The chapter is also making tickets available to students at an even lower price. Our plan is to make this concert available to every young organist who is interested.

Then, just for the social heck of it, there's a Mardi Gras party at Roy Harker's place in West Philly on Monday, February 19 at 7:00. Details about this may again be found in the cover article. An abbreviated Executive Committee Meeting will be squeezed into the schedule at Roy's too. If you are a new to the chapter, you are especially invited to join us, but even if you've been around for sometime, come to the party. Sometimes I get the feeling that some of you are too shy to join us. We really are a friendly group! If you can't make it by seven, come when you can.

I have been associated with the Philadelphia Chapter since about 1974 (with a hiatus in the 80's in Ann Arbor). It's been said that some consider the Philadelphia Chapter aloof and unfriendly while others may actually be intimidated by the group. Balderdash! I have never met a more likeable and sociable group of people! We share the same interests and concerns. We speak the same language and appreciate the same things. Yes - it is true that the chapter is made up of people of extremely differing levels of skill and interest, but if you didn't know, you would be very hard pressed to guess who is who. Our members are all genuinely real and kind to the person! The Philadelphia Chapter is an incredibly nurturing and caring group, and those of us on the inside know this for a fact and enjoy it!

That's the message of this month's letter: the genuine humanity of our Chapter. For some of us, our mission is a lifelong passion and a full-time commitment. For others, it may be an avocation, a hobby, or just as a fan of the organ. But put everyone in the same room, and we get along famously together! So don't just sit at home watching the tube on the 19th! Make plans to joins us at Roy's big house. Bring a friend! You're crazy to miss it!

Soli Deo Gloria, as usual...

Jeff Fowler

REDUCED RATES FOR DUES

As mentioned in last month's column, the National AGO Membership Office is again sponsoring a REDUCED DUES RATE program for the remainder of the 2006-2007 membership year, which ends June 30, 2007. The reduced rate is for NEW MEMBERS ONLY who join the Guild between February 1 through March 31 of 2007. This rate allows these new members to still receive nine monthly issues of The American Organist (beginning with the March 2007 issue) and, of course, our local Crescendo (up through the June issue, since it is not published during July and August). This is a great way to get potential members to join NOW for the current year prior to the beginning of the new 2007-2008 drive, and to benefit by receiving TAO sooner instead of waiting for the normal subscription dates of December '07- November '08 applied to brand new members who wait to join us for the '07-'08 year. Also note that the National Office currently does not pro-rate memberships based on when one joins the Guild, so this program offers their only discount on dues.

We have recently received several new members (thanks due to the special words of encouragement from those in our present membership), and for that we are very grateful. All you need do is to remind potential members to email or call me to receive our forms (and reduced dues rates), and since most people now have internet access, they can go to our website <www.agophila.org> to download forms very easily. Plus, the website is a good place to learn more about our programs, leadership, opportunities for service to the Guild, and about our musical and social contact as a group throughout the season.

CURRENT MEMBERSHIP

We now stand at 416 members as of the deadline for this issue. The 2007 Directory does contain all current member data, and this column will then continue to update you monthly on new names and addresses as received throughout the upcoming year. Since I always immediately inform the NYC AGOHQ membership office of address data changes, please inform me ASAP prior to your next move to insure that your TAO and Crescendo arrive at the right location. Changes in phone, email and institution should also be sent along to me so we can keep local contact with you.

SINCERE THANKS

I would again sincerely like to thank Roy Harker, our Communications Coordinator, for all his help in the creation and publication of this year's 2007 Membership Directory. His publication knowledge and computer expertise have made my job on this project so much easier, and it is greatly appreciated.

awaited us in such a quaint, historic club. Thanks again to chapter member Wesley Parrott for hosting us. We will need a final count by February 3rd, so please contact Alan Morrison at ToccataNF@aol.com or 215-360-8336 to confirm your reservation. You may pay at the door.

THEN, on Monday February 19 at 7:00 PM, we will celebrate Mardi Gras in the comfort of the beautiful home of Roy Harker and Bob Ranando. Those who have attended parties there in the past will attest to the good food, wine, and beautiful surroundings. This is a wonderful opportunity to mingle with your colleagues in a relaxed atmosphere. This is open to all AGO members and friends.

BIO for Paul Jacobs

Paul Jacobs is currently chairman of the organ department at New York's Juilliard School. He came to national attention as a concert organist in 2000 when he twice performed the complete organ works of J.S. Bach in 14 consecutive evenings in New York City and Philadelphia. Later in the year, he trumped that achievement by performing the complete works again in a spectacular 18-hour non-stop marathon in Pittsburgh. In 2000 he was a featured performer for the national convention of the American Guild of Organists in Seattle and in 2004 was a featured artist at the organization's national convention in Los Angeles.

A recitalist possessing a huge repertoire, Paul Jacobs has memorized the complete organ works of Brahms, Franck, and Duruflé, much Messiaen, most of Bach, and a vast range of other organ literature. In 2002 he performed the complete organ works of Messiaen in a series of nine-hour one-day marathons in six American cities: Chicago, Washington DC, Atlanta, San Francisco, Minneapolis, and Seattle, and has more recently repeated the extraordinary performance in New York City. He has performed throughout the United States as well as in South America, Asia, Australia, Canada, and Europe.

Mr. Jacobs has been a featured artist on Public Radio International's "Pipedreams," Bavarian Radio, Brazilian Arts Television, ABC television's World News Tonight, NPR's Morning Edition, and Minnesota Public Radio. He has captured first prizes in numerous competitions, including the 1999 Fort Wayne National Organ Competition, and the 1998 Albert Schweitzer National Organ Competition. He is the first organist ever to be honored with the Harvard Musical Association's prestigious Arthur W. Foote Award. At Yale University, he was awarded numerous honors including the Dean's Prize and the Faculty Prize of the Institute of Sacred Music. His debut recording was released in 2004 on the JAV label and features an unedited release of an all-Bach program.

Paul Jacobs began studying the piano at the age of six and the organ at age 13. By the age of 15 he was appointed head organist of a parish of 3,500 families in his hometown of Washington, Pennsylvania, continuing his organ studies with George Rau and his piano studies with Susan Woodard. He received a full scholarship to study at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia and graduated as a double major, studying organ with John Weaver and harpsichord with Lionel Party. He subsequently received the Master of Music degree and Artist Diploma from Yale, studying organ with Thomas Murray. In 2005 he was honored with the Distinguished Alumni Award from the Yale School of Music, along with violinist Syoko Aki and composer Daniel Asia.

Traditionally the music leadership of the church has reflected that diversity. Current responsibilities include one Sunday service per week, and one or two choir rehearsals as necessary. (These responsibilities may change over time.) The choir is made up of 9-10 experienced members. The organ is the principal worship instrument, but the piano should be used to create variety in the worship music experience.

Qualifications: Advanced musical training is required. A Bachelor's degree in music (organ performance, church or choral music), or equivalent certificates or experience required. Previous church music experience is preferred as well as a demonstrated ability in multiple music styles. Flexibility is required, as the church is going through a transitional period, and has recently begun the search for a new pastor. Salary to be determined. Please reply to the church address, Attention: Celia Walker.

Any organ builder can give you a few pieces of the puzzle...

In the thirty-five years since Allen pioneered digital sound, a lot has changed. Then, digital was revolutionary, today it's everywhere. Still Allen continues to lead the way in groundbreaking technology and customization for your needs. The realism of Acoustic Portrait™ and the versatility of Quad Suite™ are just two examples.

Quad Suite™ provides four completely different organ specifications in one console. No hidden stops to program to pistons, no guesswork when you play. Just four clearly marked, easily accessed, professionally balanced stop lists at your fingertips, only from Allen.

Acoustic Portrait™ is the only sampled reverb offered in any digital organ. The final piece of the digital puzzle has been completed. While all digital organs offer sampled sound, only Allen offers sampled space. The difference between it and the conventional digital reverb is—quite simply, startling.

Only Allen offers the whole picture.

Allen, Always a perfect fit.
