JUNE CHAPTER EVENT

ANNUAL MEETING and GALA DINNER

Macy's Department Store
13th and Market Streets, Philadelphia PA.
Saturday, June 5, 2010, 5:30 PM

Our June event is truly a one-of-a-kind experience, and we are very excited about it!

We will gather in the Grand Court of Macy's Department Store at 5:30 PM on Saturday, June 5, 2010, where Grand Court Organist Peter Richard Conte will play a stunning program of organ works and some of his own magnificent transcriptions.

At 6:30 PM, we will go the Greek Hall on the 3rd floor of Macy's where we will partake of a catered buffet dinner, during which we will be the very first witnesses of some interesting history: the perfectly-restored Wurlitzer organ in Greek Hall will be presented for the first time in public to our chapter, both verbally and musically. Curator of Organs, Curt Mangel, will discuss the history and

*Come, labor on.
No time for rest, till glows the western sky,
Till the long shadows o'er our pathway lie,
And a glad sound comes with the setting sun,
"Servants, well done."*
— Jane Borthwick, 1859

The AGO, as a volunteer organization, would not function without the extreme dedication of a number of individuals who donate their time and talents in service of our mission statement. As we end this program year, aside from the normal annual cycling of Executive Committee classes, we also note transition in a number of important organizational roles.

Most notably, after 15 years of service as publisher of Crescendo, Roy Harker will be turning over the reins after the very issue you are reading. The chapter is enormously indebted to Roy's graphic artistry in producing one of the finest AGO chapter newsletters in the country. Month after month I revel in the beauty of the printed page that I hold in my hands. The visual and tactile appeal of this newsletter helps ensure that the print medium is not dead. Roy will be continuing on the Executive Committee next year for the second year of his elected two-year term. In a further show of generosity, he has committed to passing on much of his wisdom to his soon-to-be-named successor. Bravo, Roy!

Also with service surpassing a decade, is our coordinator for the Tuesday noon-time concerts, Andy Heller. Organizing some 40 concerts each year, throughout the entire greater Philadelphia metropolitan region, is a monumental undertaking. Soliciting volunteer performers (many of whom take must take vacation days from their normal Monday-Friday jobs in order to participate), studying the ongoing attendance trends year after year, coordinating rehearsal times and players with the venues, ensuring that the programs contain all the requisite chapter information, and attending the majority of those events is a tremendous commitment. These free concerts are part of our local outreach to the communities in which they are held. Their timing (during normal business hours) precludes attendance of the overwhelming majority of the membership, but reports indicate that those who do attend (many of whom are retired) have their lives greatly enriched. Kudos, Andy!

This issue marks the last for our stalwart Crescendo editor, Carl Gedeik. Over six years, in his gentle manner, Carl has elicited and extracted the content of Crescendo from the diverse body of contributors. In some cases, he has performed the miracle of squeezing blood from stones. He's endured the enormous challenge of varied schedules: some on the Crescendo team only work on Crescendo during the day, Monday through Friday; other contributors only have alternate Fridays to focus on their submissions; some squeeze their prose generation in between business or concertizing trips. The only universal truth is that the contributors' schedules are NOT uniformly aligned with the ideal monthly schedule. As every contributor is also a volunteer, intent on giving the best within available resources, enticing timely submissions requires a careful hand. Carl has provided the delicate catalyst without which the creative reaction that generates Crescendo content would not happen. Laudate, Carl!

June 30 will mark the end of service for the Executive Committee's Class of 2010. Mary Elizabeth (Mib) Campbell, Elizabeth (Liz) Cochran, Wesley Parrott, and Andrew Senn have each added their wisdom to the deliberations of the body that steers and guides this chapter. For the last two years, Wesley Parrott has led the nominating committee in ensuring the uninterrupted line of leadership for the chapter. Liz Cochran has ensured that reports of our chapter's programming have appeared in The American Organist.

Serving on the Executive Committee is a duty, responsibility, and privilege that is seldom understood until it is experienced. Upon nomination, it is typically understood that committee members will be committing the first Monday evening of every month, September through June, to the Executive Committee meetings. They are aware that meetings might be at any location throughout the greater Philadelphia area, some of which have ready access for mass transit, some of which have ready access for automobiles. They recognize

CURRENT MEMBERSHIP

At publication time, we stand at 392 members.

DUES COLLECTION for 2010-2011

By now you should have received your personal dues form that shows all of the data that we have on file for you. Please return it as soon as you can, making all necessary updates. Remember that our chapter Membership Directory 2011 will be published much earlier than before. So we need your membership on record quickly so that you can be included in the book. If you have not received a form from us, please let me know immediately. Or you can download a standard/unpersonalized form from the website, but please remember to then write in all of your data to keep us updated. NOTE: If you discover a glitch in the data recorded for you on your personalized form (i.e., completely incorrect data or data attributed to another member), please let us know. Some of the forms may have been sent out that way due to problems with the company who processed and mass duplicated them for us. During our mass mailing meeting in early May, we tried to make corrections on the ones that we discovered, but some may have gotten through! Thank you for your patience. My apologies for any inconvenience.

A TIME FOR REFLECTION

As I bid you all a safe and restful summer season, let us remember those members who have passed on, who gave many years of service to the Guild, and who created wonderful music that still inspires us today to strive to maintain the fine tradition of organ performance and choral excellence. ## CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

REV. BRUCE THORSEN CHAPLAIN@AGOPHILA.ORG

"Behold I make all things new."

— Revelation 21:5

Another season has passed. It will never sound exactly that way again. We can't go back and change anything. Whatever sounds we made, they have touched someone in some way. That is what music does.

Every time we approach a piece of music, it challenges us to make it new, different from the last time we played it. What is it saying to us at that time and place in our lives? How we receive it has so much to do with what is going on in the rest of our lives.

It is hard to make things new if we feel old and tired, if we feel spent. What are we going to do with free nights? Can we allow ourselves to renew our spirits? Can we allow ourselves to sit? Can we allow ourselves to do something we have longed to do all year and never found the time for?

Life brings with it changes that often cause us stress. It depends how we frame things. It depends on whether we allow ourselves to learn from life. On the news was a person at a church in Tennessee stating that despite all the floods and experience of loss, things were going to be better.

Our chapter is changing and becoming new. Life continues being new whether we choose to acknowledge it or not. Our synod is having difficult times financially, but our bishop says that God will continue to work with us or without us. Newness is exciting and challenging.

This summer look for the newness in life and embrace it. This is part of the renewal our bodies and spirits need to be ready for the next season. God provides the newness and will be with us every step of the way. Don't miss it!

Chaplain Bruce.

that, as the representative voices of the membership, they must cull feedback from each and every one of you, and thus will dutifully attend chapter programs to do so. What is not well understood, a priori, is the nature of service on a deliberative body. The best understanding of such service may be gained by watching C-SPAN, or other televised proceedings of legislative bodies. Each Executive Committee class commits to a term of thirty three-hour sessions of debate and discussion, with those whose opinions may be highly differing from their own. They offer their wisdom and experience in the parliamentary oratory. They also carefully consider the words of their colleagues with attentiveness and persistent focus on multi-faceted mission of The American Guild of Organists. While others might be frustrated by the nature of parliamentary deliberation, these fine individuals embody the spirit of Voltaire: "I disapprove of what you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it."

Thus to the entire Executive Committee, especially to the retiring Andrew, Liz, Mib, and Wesley, thank you!

I encourage each of you to provide your thanks to these retiring servants, Roy, Andy, Carl, Andrew, Liz, Mib, and Wesley. Please take the time to show your appreciation to all who volunteer their efforts in maintaining the infrastructure of this chapter: their names are found in the columnar listings in each issue of Crescendo.

Have a splendid summer! I hope to see many, if not all, of you at the National Convention of The American Guild of Organists in Washington, DC, in July.

restoration of this instrument, and it will be played by a special guest artist.

In addition, this event will also include our annual meeting, and we will have a few short agenda items, including the presentation of certificates to our members who have attained certification status.

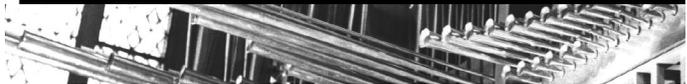

As if that were not enough fun and entertainment for the chapter's closing event, a handful of lucky "winners" selected at random from confirmed reservations will have the opportunity (after dinner and therefore after Macy's has closed for business for the day) to play the Wanamaker Grand Court Organ for a few minutes under the guidance of Grand Court Organist Peter Conte and Grand Court Substitute Organist Rudy Lucente, our Sub-Dean. The "winners" will be notified ahead of time so that they can bring music as necessary.

Cost for the entire event is only $40. per person for the dinner, which is being arranged by Macy's through their catering service, which has an excellent reputation for both quality and variety.

Don't miss this exciting event for our chapter!! Get your reservation in early, as seating is limited. Please send your check by May 25 to confirm your reservation directly to the program chairperson, Rudy Lucente, at 960 Flintlock Drive, Lansdale, PA 19446-5566.

VOX HUMANA*THANKS TO THE 'BEES' WHO HELP WITH YOUR 'CRESCENDO' MAILINGS

MANY THANKS.....to the chapter volunteers who assist with mailing your 'CRESCENDO' to you each month!! The 'bees' of the work hive include: Bob Camburn, Ethel Geist, Joel Klingman, Phyllis Linn, Mardia Melroy, Lois Ruth, Kathleen Scheide, Enos Shupp, Dorothy Fulton Stevens, Ed Wilk, and Arthur Zbinden.

They gather at the behest of the Queen Bee, Katherine Reier, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Glenside, PA. to label, stuff, staple, and stamp the 360 hard-copy Crescendos which are mailed to members and institutions each month.

Other chapter members also have made this publication possible. Writers and department heads submit materials to editor Carl Gedeik, who compiles and edits the written word and sends it on to publisher and graphic artist Roy Harker. Roy does final layout and transmits it to the printer. The printer delivers the completed (printed and stapled) product to Glenside for the 'Bees' to work on the mailing. Meanwhile, registrar Joe Lewis sends labels to Katherine Reier, the circulation co-ordinator, who summons her 'bees.'

Thanks then to all who make this publication a reality!!

Any organ builder can give you a few pieces of the puzzle...

In the thirty-five years since Allen pioneered digital sound, a lot has changed. Then, digital was revolutionary, today it's everywhere. Still Allen continues to lead the way in groundbreaking technology and customization for your needs. The realism of Acoustic Portrait™ and the versatility of Quad Suite™ are just two examples.

Quad Suite™ provides four completely different organ specifications in one console. No hidden stops to program to pistons, no guesswork when you play. Just four clearly marked, easily accessed, professionally balanced stop lists at your fingertips, only from Allen.

Acoustic Portrait™ is the only sampled reverb offered in any digital organ. The final piece of the digital puzzle has been completed. While all digital organs offer sampled sound, only Allen offers sampled space. The difference between it and the conventional digital reverb is—quite simply, startling.

Only Allen offers the whole picture.

Allen, Always a perfect fit.
